ORDER

AND NOW, this 30th day of November 2023, upon consideration of Defendant Dov Bader, M.D.'s Motion to Dismiss (ECF No. 44),¹ it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion is GRANTED. The following is further ORDERED:

1. The Section 1983 deliberate indifference claim against Defendant Bader is dismissed without prejudice to file an Amended Complaint on or before January 16, 2024. If no Amended Complaint is filed by that date, the Court will consider that claim dismissed with prejudice;
2. The medical malpractice claim against Defendant Bader that relates to Plaintiff's knee condition is dismissed with prejudice, as amendment would not cure Plaintiff's failure to file the requisite certificate of merit within the Court-ordered deadline;
3. The Clerk of Court is instructed to terminate Defendant Dov Bader, M.D.

BY THE COURT:

CHAD F. KENNEY, JUDGE

¹ Plaintiff has not filed an Opposition in Response to the Motion. Plaintiff's filing at ECF No. 46 appears to be a response to Defendants Jamie Oliver and Terri Sechrengost's (collectively "Commonwealth Defendants") Answer at ECF No. 36.
